Valentine Party.

For SMILE: I got a second hand buggy and harness. I new Quaker bath cabinet, $2.00. I 2 1/2 h. p. De Moxy boat engine, with propeller, 1 Selung jump spark coil. Inquire of J. R. LaSha, Electrician, 221 N. Beach St. fl5-2w

There was a very delightful party at The Cleveland last evening, the occasion being the observance of St. Valentine Day and the anniversary of the birth of Mrs. S. B. Green, the hostess of The Cleveland.

The guests entered into the spirit of the occasion and certainly had a royal good time. The dining room was beautifully decorated by Capt. Geo. E. Brown, of Portland, Maine, assisted by Miss Katherine Lawrence of Cambridge, Mass. The color scheme was red and green. Crepe paper was woven into many artistic designs and with the addition of palm leaves, the dining room, when lighted with red candles, presented a bower of beauty that received the praise of all who were fortunate enough to be present.

At the close of the supper, R. D. Marshall, of Dayton, Ohio, rose and in a few well chosen words presented Mrs. Green with a very handsome alligator bag, pocket book and souvenir spoon from the guests and friends at The Cleveland.

There is no doubt but the sentiment on the heart-shaped valentine which held the most prominent place in the decorations, "Our hostess the best of all valentines," expressed the feelings of everyone who has been a guest of The Cleveland this season.

The evening closed with a card party in which "hearts" was the prevailing game.

Mrs. M. E. Moore delighted those assembled by the excellent music which she furnished for the occasion.

A Comedian's Joke.

A celebrated Irish comedian went into a barber's shop to get shaved and, finding the barber out, he determined to have a little fun before his return. So he took off his coat, put on a thin one and quietly waited for a customer. An old gentleman came in soon.

"Shave, sir?" said our pretended barber.

The old gentleman took a chair and the comedian began to laugh, expecting every moment the barber would appear. Five minutes passed and no barber. Five more and still no barber. The joker began to get desperate and conceived a bright idea. Putting up his brush he quickly changed his coat again, took his hat, and was about to quietly step out behind the gentleman's back when that worthy turned his head and exclaimed:

"Here, sir, aren't you going to shave me?"

"No, sir," promptly replied the comedian. "The fact is, we only shave here, sir. They shave four doors below."

Then he bolted out of the door, leaving the indignant old fellow to his wrath.
